Uncle Matthew Breen Fails to Keep His Relative in Office.

Attempt Made to Distort the New Law Concerning Aliens.

He is not an axeman if the law stands in the way and you have an uncle with political pull. That is the way that eminent legal authority Matthew P. Breen, counsel to the Department of Street Improvements at $5,000 a year, answers the question.

If Mr. Breen had the making of the would probably not be on the statute books now. Chapter 622 provides that oan shall be employed on public works nephew of his from Ireland who comes en can't make laws, he can construe meer can't make laws, he can construe nd interpret them.

Nephew John J. Breen was luckier han most immigrants who land here. Incle Matt took care of him at once and provided him with a job as axeman at 2.50 a day in the Department of Public Works. When Uncle Matt learned that John was marked for dismissal, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 62, he was not disturbed. Another equally learned authority on law had "What's a little thing like the constitution between friends?" Why then should Mr. Breen ruin his peace of mind over a mere act of the Legislature? Mr. Breen sat down and thought with himself,

That idea was admirably carried out by Mr. Breen, as will be seen by the locuments on file in the Department of Public Works. Mr. Breen went to his riend Daly, the Commissioner of Public Works, who is paid $8,000 to know whether an axeman is a laborer, but Mr. Daly suddenly had his doubts and equired a legal opinion to settle them, so ne wrote to Corporation Counsel Mark for a decision. In his letter to Mr. Clark he said: "It is claimed the hites of an axeman place him outside if the classification of a mechanic." Accompanying this document were even letters from as many experts appressing the opinion that an axeman s not an axeman. Here is a sample of ne of the letters:

LOUIS A. RISSE.

Mr. Risse is the Engineer of the Desame opinions were given by Chief Engineer Birdsail, of the Department of Public Works; S. C. Thompson, H.
Farnum and F. Guttenborg, who are described as heads of bureaus; Louis Haffen, Commissioner of the Department of Street Improvements, and M. A. Kellogs, Engineer of the Park Department.
This note, in Mr. Breen's handwriting and signed by him, accompanied the

PHOM NEW YORK WORLD.

Mr. HOSEA HIGGINS, in his class lessons, gives individual instruction in a room separate from the general class-room. Difficient pupils find this method a great advantage. It is not such a tedious affair to LEARN how to dance. He GUARANTEES THE WALTZ IN SIX PRIVATE LESSONS, MAKING NO FALURES, and hundreds of former patrons bear willing testimony to the fact, and during the summer season this scademy is thoroughly cooled by EDISON'S LARGE COLD-AIR APPARATUS.

All the requirements being thus met, "OUR
